

Tune Your Mind (Guitar Capo 3)

Music and Lyrics by Jason Garriotte

Throughout history there has been, ideas about how it all began

Em

What plane we have all come from, and our existence from now on

Em Am 2x

It's a mystery what separates us, from all the herds of nothingness
Is it because we can speak, or something else... like the ability to dream?

Em Am 2x

Our thoughts create our world, contrary to what you may have heard
Your mind's power is so strong, just by thinking you will affect the outcome

Reaction is the result of action, the vibrations impact energy patterns
They crash around like waves, influencing the way we behave

Em Am 2x

G D C G D C D

This world is moving so fast, the chaos seems to cast a web of confusion, blocking us all from sound conclusions

I'm not here to say I know, what the future is going to hold
But tomorrow's not just another day, let's start creating... what do you say?

The Earth is fine, it's been there a long time, now experts claim we are crossing a line

Between our lives, and all of future kind, the precise cause they strain to define

There are the chemicals, clean water & CO2, But see how far we've come through scientific breakthroughs

We live today like the Kings & Queens of past, yet most complain until they draw their last breath

Chorus

Now won't you come and listen to me, I'll show you things that you never have seen

I talk of ignorance, I talk of greed, hear my words if you hunger to be free

This begs a question that you should ask, what is the trustworthy view through the looking glass

Cause all events can be seen from different sides, The ones in power decide how they guide

Factions are trying to control your thoughts, by planting concepts in a clean & tidy box

So you should always look between the f'ing lines, the absolute truth is hidden by design

Chorus

Volumes have been inspired in our past, that offer insight on how to be our best

Yet we choose to fight among each other, instead of learning how to create a bright future

Love is key, and striving to be, a positive part of our society

Change is a constant no matter the time of year, but higher things are at work so have no fear

Chorus

Moments

Music and Lyrics by Jason Garriotte

Em C G D Em C D
When I was a young man absorbing this world, a fork emerged in the road

What I thought I knew did not ring true, my faith was distorting my view

The story I'd heard seemed simple and absurd, I pondered how far it could go

And as the wind blows, thoughts arose, the questions started to flow

Chorus:

G C Am D
G C D

Could it be that one man died for everybody's sins, or we all are ruled by aliens

And they have our souls trapped on earth to keep us as their slaves, or is it that consciousness just ends

It could be more complex than we can ever fantasize, or life comes from one source

But you know every time we think that we have it all figured out, we find we were wrong from square one

Chorus:

G C Am D

2x

I've found one universal truth is that between every thought, are infinite possibilities

In each instant you decide the way that life proceeds, so you can create or destroy

If you want to capitalize on this experience, observe what is happening right now

Cause the only moment that exists just slipped into the past, so don't just let another pass you by

Chorus:

The Power To Be Alive (Guitar Capo 2)

Music and Lyrics by Jason Garriotte

Am G D x2

Am G D
In the realms beyond what we perceive

Endure all souls that have been conceived

They surround us despite going unseen

We're all connected as we are playing out our scene

Chorus:

Em C G D
Em C D
We all are looking to survive.

Em C G D
Em C D
You hold the power to be alive

There is a presence on the other side

Steering the tide toward a goal worth pride

Subtle sparks can be sensed between our thoughts

It's where the truth lies, but awareness can't be bought

-- Chorus --

Bridge:

F C F C E
Being alive forms varied shades, don't let the colors begin to fade
F C F E
Discover brilliance in the clouded beauty so you can be rapturous and free

Choices arrive like the rising sun

Or in the shadows cast by the mountains

So tune your mind to impressions you may have

And ask your heart, is this the right path.

-- Chorus --
