BIO

For the past decade, Jason Garriotte (aka "Chords of Truth") has been writing, recording, and performing his original music along with acoustic covers of classic folk songs... at venues all over the United States.

In 2012 he released his debut acoustic EP "Reflections of Reality" followed by the critically acclaimed "Reflections of Reality (Remixed Double LP)" involving collaboration with 14 producers that generated 57 EDM Folktronica remixes spanning the genres of Dubstep, House, Trance, Hip Hop, and more... from the 7 original acoustic folk songs.

After a string of singles released over the past several years, Jason has recorded a new album using just his voice, his words, and his acoustic guitar.

"Shadows Sessions" consists of both new, unreleased songs and new recordings of previous releases. Creating an existential and reflective musical journey over the course of 10 acoustic folk songs.

PASTE Magazine wrote of previous release "Wonder"
"Garriotte's heavenly voice evokes emotion and a whimsical feel throughout, as he pulls at your very heartstrings. Taking a page out of the book of artists such as Cat Stevens and Leonard Cohen..."

Huffington Post said about Remixed Project
"Jason Garriotte appears to be following in the steps of Dylan by reaching a different type of folk and changing the aspects of the experience."
